Location:

Surrounded by Sedona's celebrated Red Rock Country, L'Auberge de Sedona, A Destination Hotel is located just 28 miles south of Flagstaff and a 90-minute drive from Phoenix, and spans 11 acres. Minutes from the resort, the treasures of Sedona await with numerous art galleries and boutiques as well as outdoor activities including golf, hiking, horseback riding, jeep and helicopter tours, fishing, and hot air balloon rides. Nearby recreational areas include the Coconino National Forest, Oak Creek Canyon and the Grand Canyon.

Description:

L'Auberge de Sedona is one of the Southwest's foremost luxury retreats. Nestled on the banks of Oak Creek in Sedona's renowned Red Rock region, L'Auberge de Sedona features 62 luxury cottages, 21 traditional lodge-style guest rooms and a beautiful, stand-alone five-bedroom Creekhouse. Each of the property's luxury Vista, Creek, Preferred Garden and Spa cottages include an outdoor, open-roof cedar shower, that allows guests to enjoy the warmth of rain-head shower water, while feeling refreshed from the cool outdoor air and enjoying the starry night views. The property boasts two creekside culinary concepts, Cress on Oak Creek and ETCH Kitchen & Bar, each offering a distinctive dining experience by Franck Desplechin, executive chef and director of food & beverage. The resort's L'Apothecary Spa allows guests to become closer to the earth's essential, native benefits through creating custom body care blends with local ingredients or interacting with the environment through earthing-inspired spa treatments.

Accommodations:

The luxury cottage and guest room accommodations at L'Auberge de Sedona take inspiration from the resort's location on tranquil Oak Creek. The color palette of the cottages reflects the relaxing and rejuvenating aura of the property, with cool shades of water blue contrasting light paneled walls. The rooms maintain the cottage feel, with the warmth and traditional character of crisp painted paneling, contrasting with rustic light-colored hardwood floors, and dark wood poster beds with crisp white linens placed on large scale patterned area rugs, giving the sense of home on the creek. Guests can enjoy a peaceful dinner for two at wood dining tables with wicker chairs in the comfort of their room or put up their feet by their personal fireplace.

Lodge Guestrooms: The property's Lodge guestrooms offer king beds, luxurious bathrobes and a private patio or balcony, depending on the location. Taking inspiration from L'Auberge de Sedona's tranquil surroundings, rooms feature a refreshing blend of rustic and modern, creating a warm and comfortable setting for each guest. Each king bed is outfitted with crisp white bedding, an inviting contrast to the dark poster bed frames and leather lounge seating.

Vista Suites and Cottages: The Vista Suites and Cottages boast magnificent 180-degree panoramic views of Sedona's legendary Red Rocks including Snoopy Rock, Giants Thumb and Elephant Rock. These luxury cottages feature gas fireplaces, outdoor showers, oversized picture windows, and an expansive wood deck perfect for enjoying a sunset after a day of exploring Sedona.

Creekside Cottages: The tranquil Creekside Cottages and Suites are situated on the banks of Oak Creek, offering the sounds of the rushing creek, chirping birds and a breeze blowing through the canopy of Sycamore trees. These luxurious cottages feature wood-burning fireplaces, king-sized beds and spacious decks. Library patio doors open onto a large terrace, perfect for enjoying a glass of wine while contemplating nature. The rooms are equipped with a romantic outdoor shower.

Garden Cottages: The pet-friendly Garden Cottages are tucked quietly among the property's many colorful landscapes flowers and fruit-filled trees and the resort's beautiful natural foliage. Guests and their pets can keep warm with the Garden and Preferred Garden Cottages' wood-burning fireplaces.

Spa Cottages and Suites: Spa Cottages and Spa Suites are designed in a modern, residential style in the heart of a beautiful, natural setting. These luxurious Sedona accommodations boast a gas fireplace and private outdoor cedar shower to ensure an intimate romantic getaway. Expansive bathrooms feature jetted tubs, dual-jet showers and double vanities.

The CreekhousE: The five-bedroom CreekhousE offers an intimate space that is perfect for wedding parties, business retreats, reunions, and group buyouts. This private sanctuary is just steps from the creek and opens onto 920 square feet of outdoor communal space ideal for gatherings. Each bedroom has its own private bath, and the first-floor bedroom is wheelchair accessible. The common area includes an expansive great room and dining area adorned with local art and upscale furnishings – exuding the feel of a private Sedona estate. Steps from Oak Creek, the house also features a 640-square-foot terrace, perfect for entertaining.

Dining:

Helmed by Executive Chef Desplechin, Cress on Oak Creek and ETCH Kitchen + Bar offer two distinctive culinary concepts designed to infuse the idyllic creekside location into each guests' dining experience.

Cress on Oak Creek: Featuring a beautiful indoor dining room and an outdoor creekside experience just steps above the banks of Oak Creek, Cress is an unmatched fine-dining experience boasting a constantly changing prix fixe dinner menu showcasing creative and refined fare. The menu is infused with locally foraged, hand-selected ingredients with a full respect of seasonality, inspired by the nature of Northern Arizona tied with French culinary techniques.

ETCH Kitchen & Bar: Open for breakfast, lunch and dinner, the casual yet elegant Etch Kitchen & Bar offers elevated casual cuisine and an expert-curated beverage list, served in an artistically designed setting aimed at bringing the beauty of the outdoors in.

89Agave Cantina: In addition to the property's two creekside restaurants, L'Auberge de Sedona offers a casual and vibrant dining experience at 89Agave, located just steps above the resort, along Highway 89A in Uptown Sedona. The restaurant offers Sonoran-style Mexican food and 89 tequila options in a fun and colorful environment. In addition to an active bar area where guests can dine casually or enjoy drinks with friends, the lively eatery also offers a quieter dining room perfect for a family meal or group celebration. The outdoor street-side patio is ideal for taking in the Sedona scene.

Duck Beach Brew: In 2018, L'Auberge de Sedona launched its own local beer, "Duck Beach Brew," as a result of partnering with Sedona's only microbrewery, Oak Creek Brewery. Guests can choose from an IPA and Amber Ale, both naturally carbonated and made with pure Sedona spring water.

L'Apothecary Spa:

L'Auberge de Sedona developed the L'Apothecary Spa, a space for resort guests and Arizona visitors to draw upon the destination's rich bounty of healing botanicals and fragrant herbs and flowers to blend their own custom body care products. The blending station offers ingredients and supplies for guests to concoct and design their own bath soaks and body scrubs with an abundant offering of elements found in Sedona, including rosemary, piñon pine, juniper, and more. In addition to the blending station, signature blend and body care line, the L'Apothecary experience extends into the spa menu with two rejuvenating treatments that incorporate the same principles and botanical ingredients to promote healing of the mind and body through nature. The Feet in the Creek and Quiet Mind treatments have been designed to relax, balance, connect and awaken the senses.

Guests also can enjoy an array of body or facial treatments at L'Apothecary Spa, whether it be in one of the calming treatment rooms, Creekside in a private outdoor cabana or in the privacy of a cottage. All treatments use the purest, highest quality products that include plant-based essential oils and natural ingredients.

Wellness Offerings:

L'Auberge de Sedona also offers a plethora of wellness-focused activities and amenities for guests to experience. From complimentary Forest Bathing and Full Moon Meditation to daily yoga, there is an offering to ensure each and every guest finds their well-deserved wellness break while on property. Additionally, L'Auberge de Sedona recently introduced a Vortex Treehouse where guests can experience the upflow and inflow of Sedona's vortices with a guided spiritual meditation series inspired by four vortices – Airport Mesa, Boynton Canyon, Bell Rock and Cathedral Rock.

Artist-in-Residence Program:

L'Auberge de Sedona partners with Sedona-based Goldenstein Gallery to create a bespoke artist in residency program reflective of the destination's unique artist community. In addition to curating a collection of local artwork that can be enjoyed throughout the resort, this program offers guests the opportunity to interact with local artists working on their masterpieces right on property, whether it be within the welcoming lobby or along the banks of the beautiful Oak Creek. The program brings a wide variety of art mediums and styles to the guest experience, ranging from pointillism and jewelry making, to clay and wax sculpting for bronze casting. Guests are encouraged to watch and interact with the artists as they paint, sculpt and craft their treasured pieces.

Resort Activities:

- Morning Duck Feeding
- Sedona Geology & History Lecture
- Photographer's Guided Walk
- L'Apothecary Spa
- Astronomer-Led Stargazing
- Forest Bathing
- Yoga
- Full Moon Meditation
- Nature/Fitness Hikes

Meetings and Weddings:

L'Auberge is an ideal venue for small to medium group events including team building activities, executive retreats, reunions and weddings. The resort features five modern function rooms with a total of 4,480 square feet of state-of-the-art meeting and event space, as well as outdoor reception areas totaling 13,000 square feet. The resort's stunning backdrop offers a collection of distinctive venues surrounded by the captivating nature of Sedona for weddings and groups. Choose from the tree-shaded Cottageside or Creekhouselawns on Oak Creek, the SpiritSong Terrace with awe-inspiring Red Rock views, or the Monet Ballroom with a private outdoor reception lawn. Meetings and events also can be held at several other intimate outdoor venues on property so that guests can take in the inspirational views and enjoy their scenic surroundings.
